

Contents

EDITORIAL

Establishing Principles for Migraine Management in Primary Care

Andrew J. Dowson

89-93

REVIEWS

Chronic Daily Headache in General Practice: Diagnosis and Physiopathology of Common Types of Headache

Guy Boudreau

95-99

Chronic Headache: A Challenge for Doctors

Christian Lampl, Silvia B. Bonelli, Susanne Schmidegg and Gerhard Ransmayr

101-107

MIPCA Algorithms for Physicians, Nurses and Patients

David Watson

109-114

ORIGINAL ARTICLES

MIDAS Assessments of Migraine Management, Including the Use of Triptans, in Japan

Noriko Otsuka, Fumihiko Sakai, Miho Iigaya, Hisaka Igarashi and Masuo Shirataka

115-121

The Impact of Primary Headaches on Patients' Lives: Italian Experience with the MIDAS and the SF-36 Questionnaires

Domenico D'Amico, Susanna Usai, Licia Grazi, Alessandra Solari, Marcella Curone and Gennaro Bussone

123-128

The Brief Headache Screen: A Rapid and Sensitive Paradigm for Screening Headache Patients

Morris Maizels

129-135

SHORT COMMUNICATIONS

The Prevalence and Diagnosis of Migraine in a Primary Care Setting: Insights from the Landmark Study

Andrew Dowson, Carl Dahlof, Stewart Tepper, Lawrence Newman and the Landmark Study Group

137-139

Identifying and Managing Unmet Needs of Headache Sufferers in General Practice

David Kernick and Deborah Reinhold

141-145

GUIDELINE

Tailoring Migraine Management in Primary Care to the Needs of the Individual Patient

S. Lipscombe, T. Rees and A.J. Dowson

147-157